

Adv. Henry Vorster

Protea Group of Advocates
Johannesburg Bar Association

Email: henry@iitf.net

Education and Qualifications

High Court of South Africa

Admitted as an advocate to practice in South Africa

High Court of South Africa

Admitted as an attorney to practice in South Africa

Rand Afrikaans University (Rau)

HDip South African Tax Law

University of South Africa

LLB

University of Natal (Durban), South Africa

Bachelor of Commerce (Law & Business Administration)

Over 20 years of professional tax practice:

Lecturing

2002 - 2019 University of South Africa (HDip SA Tax)

Other

2007 – Present Advocate

2000 - 2007 Attorney

Professional and Industry Experience

Lecturing experience

Commenced assisting with the H. Dip. Tax postgraduate programme at Rand Afrikaans University (RAU) in 2002 conducting post-lecture tutorials 2002-2003.

Co-lecturer of H. Dip Tax (RAU) for selected modules 2004-2012. RAU became the University of Johannesburg (UJ) during this time.

Course co-ordinator, leader and primary lecturer of H. Dip Tax (UJ) 2011-2019.

Professional Experience

Advocate Henry Vorster completed his articles of clerkship at Hofmeyr Herstein and Gihwala, one of the largest firm of attorneys in Johannesburg in 2001. Thereafter he practised law at the firm Vorster Pereira Inc with an emphasis on tax administration, disputes, and planning. In 2007 he was called to the Bar and admitted as an advocate of the High Court of South Africa. His area of expertise is in tax, but also enjoys a wide and varied practice encompassing general commercial litigation, property disputes, and administrative law.